Annual Gingerbread Competition

The Annual Gingerbread house competition took place before the Thanksgiving break. The only instruction, everything must be edible. As always there were many different ideas for houses and students had a chance to showcase their creative sides.

Although the competition was stressful, students enjoyed using their imaginations to come up with their gingerbread house design.

And the WINNERS are...

1st place, Shon Messick

2nd place, Larissa Ealy

3rd place, Esmeralda Bedolla Juarez

Culinary and Pastry Arts brought the magic and beauty of winter inside the CTC with their Winter Wonderland of Gingerbread Houses.

Yuletide Tea

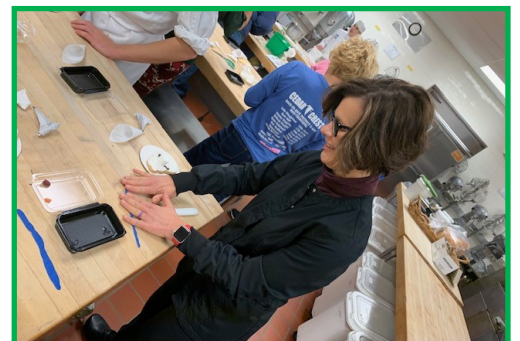

The Apprenticeship program hosted its annual Holiday Tea. This event is a fundraiser to support the Apprenticeship program apprentices to attend the ACF Regional Conference this year, held in Nashville, TN.

Over 50 people attended the event. The students in the secondary culinary and pastry arts programs assisted the apprentices to execute this festive and successful event.

CTC Staff Decorate Cookies for the Holidays

On December 13, the staff ushered in the festive feels by decorating a sugar cookie bases melting snowman. This provided an opportunity for staff to enjoy each other's company in the holiday bustle and a look at what our Pastry students do on a daily basis. Many thanks to Chef Peffley and his students in Pastry Arts for providing the delicious cookies and guidance on decorating.

FAMILY FUN NIGHT

On December 17, the Wellness Committee hosted another monthly Wellness event. This month was focused on mental health and team building ...to celebrate the Holiday spirit, the LCCTC staff and family members participated in a Gingerbread House decorating party. Pastry Arts Instructor, Chef Peffley and his dedicated students baked and prepared the gingerbread houses for the staff and family members to decorate. Holiday music was playing and many fun memories were made. Pizza and drinks were provided by the Spirit Committee. We hope to make this an annual event for all to enjoy next year.

HOLIDAY DOOR DECORATING

The classes at the CTC performed holiday miracles creating holiday door displays featuring the theme “How the Grinch Stole Christmas”. The results of hours of hard work were topped off by judging which were the best. The contest will probably go down in the Book of Who as a success for the ages. (all ages)

Each year the Culinary and Pastry Arts students create and prepare a Gala Buffet for the Holiday Season. This gives the students the opportunity to do more elaborate and high event products similar to a cruise ship buffet.

PALMYRA ELEMENTARY STUDENTS HEARD PRESENTATIONS ON CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Mrs. Flowers and student ambassadors, Madison Johnson and Tyler Brown both enrolled in our Health Careers Technology program spent the day traveling around to the Palmyra Elementary Schools on January 6th presenting to their 5th grade students about the CTC and the opportunities provided to students. It was a fun day spreading the news to young students about our school and the experiences our ambassadors have had so far!

K9 Fundraiser for Paws that Enforce the Laws

The students in Mrs. Mays' PM Law Enforcement class held an ice cream social fundraiser during our school-wide spirit week. The students sold chocolate chip waffle ice cream sandwiches and root beer and coca cola ice cream floats to raise money for the South Londonderry K-9 fund.

The students did a wonderful job working together to raise money in support of the paws that enforce the laws. Their efforts raised $408 which will be presented to Officer Ague and Rex at South Londonderry Police Department by the law enforcement students. Thank you to all the Lebanon County CTC students and staff that supported our fundraiser!

Officer Nick Ague Explains His Responsibilities as a K9 Handler

Officer Nick Ague and his partner, Rex from the South Londonderry Police Department came to CTC on December 16th to speak to Mrs. Mays' AM Law Enforcement class. Officer Ague shared how he became a K-9 handler, how he obtained Rex, the intense training he and Rex endured for 5 weeks before Rex was officially sworn in as an officer, and the daily routine he and Rex share as partners.

Officer Ague discussed how Rex has been used as an asset in many police situations since his instatement as a K-9 officer 5 years ago. Rex's main line of police work is narcotics detection, so Rex has been crucial in removing drugs off the streets. The students used the opportunity to ask Officer Ague a lot of questions about being a K-9 handler and about his partner Rex. The students gained a wealth of knowledge from Officer Ague and Rex.
