

LCCTC Delivers First-Ever Virtual SkillsUSA PA District Competition

The Lebanon County Career and Technology Center has hosted many SkillsUSA PA district competitions in the past. That usually means 300+ students, advisors, and judges visit the school to participate in many skills and leadership contests.

This year's competition, however, was like no other. LCCTC imagined, created, and delivered 27 contests in which participants competed via live-streaming Zoom meetings. Most of the students competed from their own vocational-technical schools, and several even participated from their homes. Students from Adams County Technical Institute, Dauphin County Technical School, Milton Hershey School, and LCCTC took advantage of this unique opportunity to compete.

Traditional, tried-and-true contests such as Commercial Baking, Culinary Arts, and Masonry were offered. Students could also participate in new-to-Lebanon contests like T-Shirt Design, CNC Milling/Turning, and Medical Terminology. Awards were announced in the form of a PowerPoint slide show, and medals and certificates were sent out in the mail to the participating schools.

Shawn Eckenrode, school director at Adams County Technical Institute, said, "Whoever thought that we could/ would have had a virtual SkillsUSA competition?? Thank you to everyone involved in providing this unusual but successful opportunity to our students...they enjoyed it!"

Career and Technology Center.

At Annville, Matthew is a member of the football and baseball teams.

Outside of school, he volunteers as a youth flag football coach at the Cleona Park. He also works part-time at Walmart.

After graduation, Matthew plans to continue his education in the automotive field at UTI. His career goal is to become an Automotive Technician.

Nina Eckert, Dental Assistant Instructor, selected to Lebanon County Educational Honor Society

Nina started her career in dental assisting by accident after her daughter fell and hurt her lip. She took her daughter to the dentist and was offered a position for training as a dental assistant. She studied on the job and received her Certified Dental Assisting certificate, Infection Control Certification and the Radiology Certifications within six months. Nina worked in the dental field for 19 years. She was offered a dental assistant instructor position at Lancaster County Career and Technology Center and worked there for 10 years. In 2011, Nina became the new dental assistant instructor at Lebanon County Career and Technology Center and has been here for the last 11 years. Nina received her Bachelor's Degree (2015) and Master's Degree (2019) in Workforce Education and Development from Penn State University.

In her free time, she enjoys her seven grandchildren, dog Boomer, cat Pebbles, and her husband Ted. Nina has been married to Ted for 47 years and they live in Lititz in a house they built together. Their son Travis owns a ceramic tile corporation, All Set Tile and Marble Inc. and is married to Amy. They have six children, Rachel, Joe, Caleb, Maddie, Taylor, and Addie. Nina and Ted's daughter Nicole works at Allert All as the Production Manager and is married to Andrew and they have a daughter Mikaila.
