Culinary & Pastry Arts Programs Hosted an American Culinary Federation Meeting

On Monday, November 21, 2022, the Culinary and Pastry Arts programs hosted the ACF Harrisburg Chapter for their November meeting. Chef Charlie Gipe demonstrated scrapple and mush, Chef Tom Long demonstrated ice carving, and Chef Brian Peffley and Gracie Adams demonstrated breadbasket and braids.

Our students networked with other students from HACC and Lancaster CTC Culinary and Pastry programs. As an ACF accredited program here at the Lebanon CTC students receive a free membership and are able to participate in the meetings.

Please welcome new staff member . . .

Andrew Langhuber, CTC Police Officer

Andrew retired from the Philadelphia Police Department after 32 years of service where he served as a Patrolman, School Police Officer. He also worked in the Prisoner Processing Unit and HQ Security Unit.

Drew graduated from Father Judge High School in Philadelphia and attended Temple University for three years. He graduated from the Philadelphia Police Academy in 1990.

In 1997, Drew got married and had one child in 2005. He has many interests ranging from sports to taking care of his many pets. Most of the time he is out riding around or going to shopping malls with his autistic daughter.

Community Open House

On November 10, 2022, the CTC held its annual Community Open House event. We had a great turnout of about 500 visitors who came to see all the CTC has to offer. They had the opportunity to speak with instructors, current students, view live demonstrations, and even apply right on the spot!

Sydnee Huffman, NL, Cosmetology

Sydnee Huffman is the daughter of Juli Harder and Brian Huffman, Lebanon, PA. Sydnee is a senior at Northern Lebanon High School and is enrolled in the Cosmetology Program at the Lebanon County Career and Technology Center.

Sydnee is a student ambassador the last two years at the CTC as well as a member of the student organization, SkillsUSA. She also has been active in numerous clubs at her high school such as student council, service club and a member of the Track and Field team. Outside of school, she volunteers at her local food bank and has been a group leader at her church for Vacation Bible School. She also works part-time at Oola Bowls and Bath and Body Works.

After graduation, Sydnee plans to take some courses on esthetics, permanent makeup, and laser hair removal. Her career goal is to become an Esthetician and own a salon.

Dylan Roberts, CL, Landscape Tech.

Dylan Roberts is the son of Michelle Roberts, Lebanon, PA. Dylan is a senior at Cedar Crest High School and is enrolled in the Landscape Technology Program at Lebanon County Career and Technology Center.

Dylan is a member of the National Technical Honor Society (NTHS) at CTC. Last school year, Dylan served as the Vice-President of NTHS. He also participates in our Cooperative Education program by working for Schultz Landscaping. At CCHS, he was a member of the football and wrestling teams. Outside of school, as a volunteer, Dylan has created sets for shows at the St. James Players Theatre.

After graduation, Dylan plans to work for General Electric working on the welding assembly line.
